This Week in Churchfield

All Year Groups have now had their Parent Meetings which hopefully you all managed to attend. Year 4 and Maple Class are out on a trip today to Bristol Museum.

Book Fair

It is time for our first Scholastic Book Fair which will be held after school from Tuesday 4th October and up to and including Monday 10th October. We also have a special event on Friday 7th October as Clifford the Big Red Dog will be at the Book Fair for children to have photos taken with - so please come along and bring your phone or camera. Please support this event if you can, there are lots of lovely books and the school receives free books based on how many we sell. The Book Fair will be held in Elm class and we look forward to seeing you there.

Spellings

You will notice a change to your child's spellings over the next few weeks. We have made the decision to reduce the number of spellings we send home for children to learn. Your child will now have five spellings they must learn and these will be taught by the teacher over the week. There will be an additional five if your child wants a challenge. This change is to enable deeper learning of the spellings including more emphasis on the meaning. We have found although many children are successful in their weekly spelling tests they are unable to apply and use the spellings in their written work. Thank you for all your support with spellings at home so far. If you have any questions or queries, please do not hesitate to ask.

And What Have We Got Lined Up For Next Week?

Next Wednesday morning we are holding an Open Morning for parents of new Reception children who are due to start school in September 2017. There are two session times: 9.30am-10.10am and 11.00am-11.40am. Please telephone or email the office to book a session.

Reception Classes (Ash & Birch) are starting their outdoor learning afternoons on Thursday 29th. These will take place every Thursday afternoon so please remember to bring in waterproofs and wellies that are named!
