

Monthly Tweet by the School Council

by: Blossom, Shannon and Ashton

This week's NEWS

- We are decorating our classes doors in a competition.
- Our Christian value this half term has been kindness.
- It is now Advent, the time leading up to Christmas .

What's the Monthly tweet ?

The monthly tweet is a letter about what's being going on in school.

Also it tells you some facts and information and a little challenge.

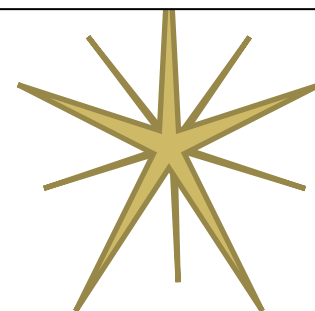

Spelling Challenge 4,5,6

Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious

We would like you to learn need this by heart by FRIDAY assembly we will ask some of you

Reading Challenge R, 1,2,3:

Try to read the Hungry Caterpillar we will ask you some questions about it .

We have interviewed Miss
Dyer

Favourite children book:

Adolphus Tips by Michael Morpurgo .

Why do you enjoy teaching? Because it's good to see when children achieve their goals and believe in them selves.

What's your favourite subject? History [particularly Victorians] because I find the past is really interesting.

Favourite colour : I'm a bit of a multi-coloured person .

Maths VS English : It used to be English but now its maths because I love up-lift maths .

Favourite flower: Peony

Did you always like reading? I was always a good reader but it wasn't until I got older that I loved reading.

Christmas

We would like to say good luck to you with your Christmas doors.
