Internet Safety - Musical.ly app

I have heard a few of our older children talking about the musical.ly app recently. There has been some concerns over the app and how easily strangers can gain access to the videos the children upload online. The information below popped up on my Facebook feed this week. It is advice from a local police force in Cornwall. It is very informative especially, if like me, you don't know much about this app.

"Five ways to keep your child safe whilst using the app:

- 1. Secure their account by making it private- this way only users that your children accept are able to view their videos. You can also block a user if needed.*
- 2. Tell your child to never include their location when posting videos.*
- 3. Tell your children to only accept a follower request if they can be 100% sure that they know the user.*
- 4. The app has an age rating of 13+ so if you find that your child created an account without your permission you can email privacy@musical.ly and let them know that the account was made by someone underage. They will promptly work to delete the account.*
- 5. You can delete all videos, remove their profile picture, change their account name and finally make the account both invisible and unrecognisable before removing it from your child's device/s"*

Open Door

Thank you to everyone who donated items for our recent collection for our charity Open Door. They collected all the items on Tuesday and were, again, overwhelmed by everyone's generosity.

World Book Day

World Book Day is happening next Thursday (2nd March). A letter came home to you on Monday asking for the children to dress up as their favourite book character in exchange for bringing in a book an adult no longer reads at home (again, for the Open Door charity). Can we please ask that children avoid wearing football kits or come in mufti that day. Children who do not wish partake should come to school in uniform. I am looking forward to seeing everyone's costumes.

Memorial Hall

The village hall committee are looking for more trustees. They meet about 4 times a year for about an hour at a time and would like another school representative to join. If this is something you think you spare some time for, please see Miss Penn for more information.

Attendance

This week's attendance in each class:

94.43	96.03	97.21	94.91	96.47
Class 1	Class 2	Class 3	Class 4	Class 5

Stars of the Week

Class 1	Jayden Berberogullari	Sensible working at Challenge Times.
Class 2	Ellie Kearney	For being courageous
Class 3	Tilly Salter-Drayton	For always being kind and caring
Class 4	Toby Ralls	For putting 100% into everything he does
Class 5	Rhys Baldwin	For making a positive start to Year 6 at Cheddon
